

Creation of anonymous processing information and third parties provision

YG Health Insurance Society

YG Health Insurance Society creates anonymous processing information for health business, epidemiological survey, etc. and provides it to the medical prescription Analyst using electronic communication means.

Information that identifies individuals is not included.

[Information items included in anonymous processing information]

- Gender
- Birth date
- Medical insurance qualification information (entry period, withdrawal period, principal / family classification etc)
- History of medical examination of medical fee statement
- Health checkup visit history

[Receptor Analyst]
JMDC Corporation

